NAVAL RECORD OF CONNECTICUT
IN THE REVOLUTION.

1775-1783.

NAVAL RECORD, 1775-1783.

STATE VESSELS,
CONTINENTAL MEN-OF-WAR,
GALLEYS,
PRIVATEERS, ETC.

IN the loss or absence of many State and National Records bearing upon the American Navy in the Revolutionary War, the roll of Connecticut men in this branch of the service can at present be prepared only in incomplete form. The following lists have been obtained from the collections in Hartford; Boston, and Washington, and a few from papers in private hands.

CONNECTICUT STATE AND CONTINENTAL VESSELS. 1775-1783.

The first armed vessels provided by Connecticut in the Revolution were the two fitted out for State service in 1775, referred to in the pay accounts for that year printed on page 94. These were:

I. BRIGANTINE "MINERVA."

Captain. Giles Hall, Wallingford.
1st Lieut. Thomas Horsey, Derby (declined).
" James Hopkins, _____.
2d Lieut. Jehiel Tinker, _____.
" Thompson Phillips, _____.
Steward. Timothy Larrabee, _____.
" Andrew Jhonnot, Middletown.
Master. William Plummett, _____.
Mate. William Warner, _____.
Gunner. Benjamin Cranstin, _____.

2. SLOOP "SPY."

Captain. Robert Niles, Norwich.
Appt. Aug. 14, '75; transf. to the Dolphin*, Ap.
21, '78.
1st Lieut. Zebadiah Smith, Norwich.
Prom. Capt. Ap. 21, '78.

* [Capt. Niles was taken prisoner when the Dolphin was captured later in '78.]

The Minerva, 108 tons, was chartered from Capt. Wm. Griswold of Wethersfield, and fitted out at Middletown. Her force consisted of 40 seamen and 40 marines. Trouble with the crew prevented the vessel from being of much service in '75. Vessel of same name in commission as late as '82.

In Aug. '75 the Governor's Council voted to charter a small vessel "to be used chiefly as a Spy, to run from place to place, to carry intelligence, discover the enemy, &c." It cruised in the Sound and at sea, capturing a number of prizes. In '78 the Spy was taken by the enemy and sent to England.

PRIVATEER "HARRISON."

On Oct. 24, '75, by order of Gen. Washington, Capt. William Coit of Norwich, then in Parsons' Regt. before Boston (p. 74) marched with his Company to Plymouth and took charge of the Privateer Harrison, carrying 4 carriage guns and 10 swivels. After capturing some prizes he returned home about Jan. 1, '76, on the disbandment of his Regt. Re-entered naval service later as Capt. of the Oliver Cromwell. Pownal Deming was a Sergeant under Coit, in his company and vessel.

BRIG-OF-WAR "DEFENCE."

In Feb. '76 the State chartered the Defence, which was officered as follows:

Captain. Seth Harding, _____ Appt. Feb. 23, '76. Transf. to the Oliver Cromwell and later to the Confederacy. Succeeded by—
Captain. Samuel Smedley,
1st Lieut. Ebenezer Bartram, Fairfield (resigned).
2d Lieut. Joseph Hopkins, Middletown.
" Henry Billings, (resigned).
" Samuel Bartram, (resigned).
" _____ Pease,
3d Lieut. James Angel,
Master. John McCleave, New Haven. Appt. Capt. of Galley Whiting.
" Josiah Burnham, Lyme (resigned).
" _____ Bebee,
Lieut. Mar. Joseph Squire,

The Defence cruised off Boston harbor in the fall of '76 and captured several valuable prizes; also engaged in sharp and successful actions both under Capt. Harding and Capt. Smedley. In April, '78, the Defence and Cromwell fought and captured the Admiral Keppel and Cyrus — English "letters-of-marque" — and brought them into Boston.

GALLEYS: "WHITING," "CRANE," AND "SHARK."

In the Spring and Summer of '76, three galleys were built and officered as follows:

Galley Whiting (built at New Haven).

Captain. John McCleave,
1st Lieut. Israel Bishop,
2d Lieut. Ebenezer Peck,
Master. William Plummett,

Galley Crane (built at East Haddam).

Captain. Jehiel Tinker,
1st Lieut. David Brooks, Haddam.
2d Lieut. Elias Lay,
Master. Calvin Ely,

GALLEY "SHARK" [Built at Norwich].

The above galleys were ordered to New York, at the request of Washington, and two of them, the Whiting and Crane, were captured in the North River in the fall of '76.

A flotilla of gondolas, galleys, &c., was built on Lake Champlain in the summer and fall of '76, and commanded by Gens. Arnold and Waterbury. Among the builders of the craft were two companies of ship carpenters sent from Connecticut (by request of Gen. Schuyler), under Captains Job Winslow and Jonathan Lester. Most of the vessels were destroyed or captured in the action off Valcour's Island, Oct. 11, '76. Whether the galleys were credited to certain States or belonged to Congress is not clear. The Lady Washington was commanded by Gen. Waterbury. Arnold was on the Congress; and among others, Capt. Hawley commanded the Royal Savage; Capt. Mansfield the New Haven; Capt. Grant the Connecticut; and Capt. Warner the Trumbull. The following concerning the latter galley appears in State Library Papers :

GALLEY "TRUMBULL," LAKE CHAMPLAIN, '76.

CONTINENTAL FRIGATE "TRUMBULL."

[Under resolutions of Congress directing that two frigates, of 36 and 28 guns respectively, be built in Connecticut, Gov. Trumbull and Council voted February 17 and 18, 1777, that one of these, afterwards named the Trumbull, should be built at Chatham, on the Connecticut River, under the supervision of Capt. John Cotton of Middletown. It was completed, ready for sea, about a year later. Its first Captain, Dudley Saltonstall, being transferred to the Warren, Capt. J. Nicholson of Penn., took command. In 1781 the Trumbull was captured off the Delaware Capes by two British ships, the Iris and Gen. Monk, "after a gallant resistance of more than one hour, during which she was completely dismantled, and lost 5 killed, and 11 wounded." See Lieut. Emmons' "Navy of the U. S.," p. 3. The other frigate built in Conn. was the Confederacy, 36 guns.]

CONTINENTAL FRIGATE "CONFEDERACY."

[See heading to frigate Trumbull, preceding. The Confederacy, 36 guns, was built on the Thames below Norwich and launched in 1778. On Oct. 20, 1779, she sailed from Philadelphia for France, having on board the French Minister, Gerard, and the newly-appointed American Minister to Spain, the Hon. John Jaury, as passengers. On the 7th of November, the vessel encountered a great storm and lost all her masts and sails, and was obliged to make her way to Martinico, reaching that port Dec. 18th. Being refitted the Confederacy put to sea again, but was subsequently, March-April, 1781, captured off the Capes of Virginia by a British Seventy-four, and taken into Charleston, S. C., then in the enemy's possession.]

NOTE.—On April 27, 1779, the above crew of the Confederacy, then lying at New London, appointed Captain Andrew Perkins, of Norwich Landing, their "true and lawful Attorney and Agent for us and in our names and to our use, to ask, demand, recover or receive all and every part of all Prizes, with all prize goods, or Bountys, that may become due to us during the run of the aforesaid cruise" "against the enemies of America."

PRIVATEER "MARQUIS DE LAFAYETTE."

[ARTICLES OF AGREEMENT, Made and Concluded on in the Town of New London, State of Connecticut, between the Owners, Captain, Officers and Men of the Brigt. "Marquis de La Fayette," Elisha Hinman, Commander, mounting — Guns, navigated with — Men, furnished with a Letter of Marque, bound from the Port of New London to Virginia, in Chesapeak Bay, from thence to Amsterdam in Europe, and to return to the aforesaid Port of New London, or any port in the United States as circumstances may admit, or the Captain think most advisable.

ARTICLE I. The Owners do covenant to fit for Sea the said Brigt. Marquis, with all stores, and other necessaries, fitting for the above mentioned Voyage.

ARTICLE II. The Owners shall be entitled to two-thirds the net proceeds of all Prizes that shall be taken during the Voyage, and the other third shall be divided among the Brig's company in the proportion hereunder affixed.

ARTICLE III. All officers to be appointed by the Captain only, who shall have full power to displace such as he shall find unfit.

ARTICLE IV. Disobedience to the commands of the Captain, or principal officers, Cowardice, Mutiny, or Embezzlement of Goods, to be punished according to Law.

ARTICLE V. If any man shall get drunk in time of action, or in chase, he shall forfeit one-half of his prize money to the rest of the Brig's company.

ARTICLE VI. If any man loses a leg, or an arm, in time of Action, he shall receive the sum of 200 Silver Dollars. If any loses a joint, or an eye, in time of action, he shall receive the sum of 100 Silver Dollars. Whoever boards a Vessel before she strikes shall receive 20 Silver Dollars, as a reward for his bravery. Whoever sees a Sail first, which may after prove a Prize, shall receive 5 Silver Dollars, which several rewards shall be paid one third out of the Brig's company, the other two thirds out of the Owners' part of all Prizes taken during the Voyage.

ARTICLE VII. The Officers and Men that shall be put on board any prize shall exert themselves to carry the same into such Port as the Captain shall direct, and not leave such Prize until they are properly discharged, also those that may return with said Brig shall be under the same restrictions, and in case of failure his, or their, whole prize money and wages to be forfeited, two-thirds of the prize money to the Owners, and the other third to the rest of the Brig's company.

ARTICLE VIII. In case of the death of Captain, then the command of the Brig shall devolve to the next in command.

ARTICLE IX. If any person, or persons, shall desert the Brig before the expiration of the above-mentioned Voyage, without the consent of the Captain, he, or they, shall forfeit their whole wages and shares, two thirds the shares to the Owners, the other third to the rest of the Brig's company, and One Hundred Silver Dollars to the Owners or their Assigns.

ARTICLE X. If any Officer, or private man, shall purchase any article whatever from on board any prize, or prizes, that may be taken during the Voyage, from the Captain, Passengers, or any other person on board said Prize or Prizes, without the express leave of the Captain or Owners, he or they shall forfeit what they so purchased, or the value thereof to be taken out of their wages or prize money.

ARTICLE XI. If any person shall take from the Captain, Passengers or any person on board any Prize that may be taken during the Voyage, his or their wearing apparel or bedding, or take from such Prize any Instrument, Charts, or any other article whatever, without the express leave or orders of the Captain, he or they shall deliver up such article, or articles, and forfeit the value thereof in money to the Owners and Brig's company to be taken out of his or their wages or prize money.

ARTICLE XII. No person under any pretence whatever shall presume to sell his privilege, or share, in any prize or prizes under penalty of such sale being null and void.]

LIST OF REVOLUTIONARY PENSIONERS.

CONNECTICUT.

[No general pension laws were passed by Congress until March 18, 1818, when it was provided that survivors of the Revolutionary War, who had served for nine months or more in the Continental army or navy, could, under the conditions of the act, become pensioners of the Government. Prior to that date relief had been given only to those who had been disabled in the service, or to their widows and children. The following list represents the Connecticut pensioners of 1818, as published in Pub. Docs., 1st Session, 16th Congress. Where the name of another State is given, it is to be understood that the pensioner enlisted from Connecticut into the service of that State; or, in a few cases, that the pensioner came from the State indicated, but was residing in Conn. in 1818. Other lists follow arranged under later acts of Congress.]

FIRST COMPANY GOVERNOR'S FOOT GUARDS. — In the Lexington Alarm List, under town of New Haven, pp. 17, 18, a list is given of the Second Company Governor's Foot Guards, organized in 1775. The First Company was organized in Hartford in 1771, a brief history of which appears in the "Memorial History of Hartford County." In regard to its Revolutionary service the Conn. Courant for Aug. 2, 1831, says: In the Burgoyne alarm "the Foot Guards under Judge Bull [Jonathan Bull], although specially exempted by their charter from being drafted, unanimously volunteered, and marched to the assistance of their brethren at Saratoga. Although they were not so fortunate as to reach the scene of action in time to participate in the taking of Burgoyne, yet the patriotism and courage they evinced on this occasion, form an honorable distinction in their history. It was while marching across Rhinebeck Flats, as an advanced guard to the troops who were hastening towards Saratoga, that they met the express conveying the thrilling tidings of Burgoyne's surrender."
